Baby's Airship

Lullaby

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

Gustav von Meckel.

Price 50 cents

PUBLISHED BY

G. V. Meckel
845 Eighth Avenue
New York.

1909
Respectfully dedicated to Miss Lorayne Leslie.

BABY'S AIRSHIP.
Lullaby.

Words and Music by
GUSTAV von MECKEL.

Copyright MCMIX by G.V.Meckel.
British Copyright Secured.
Sweet baby mine, On the silver crest, Let that fluffy cloud let go and come home to rest.

Now the rog - uish stars ap - pear, And the qui - et moon,

Baby's Airship - 3 (©)
Baby's Airship.

Baby cannot keep awake, Will be slumbering soon.

Sweet baby mine.

On the silver crest, Let that fluffy cloud let go

and come home to rest...

rall. e dim.

ral-len-tan-do.
When I Awake.

Words and Music by
WALTER RAYMOND SMITH.

Moderato.

1. When sunlight fades and day is done,
   And evening shades fall on one, by gain,
   Seems that I ne'er can wait till gain,

2. When, dear, we part to meet a-
   And the bright stars peep from above, one,
   Life is so weary, sad and drear,

Copyright MCMVII by Walter Raymond Smith.
Copyright assigned MCMVIII to G.V. Meckel.

Also published in C
Respectfully dedicated to Miss Charlotte Neely.

ONE SWEET ROSE.

Lyric by

CATALINA PÁEZ.

Music by

WALTER RAYMOND SMITH.

Moderato.

One sweet rose, dear, To thee I send, Sweet-er than all my gar-den grows; Thousands were could, dear, That in the end, Might bloom for thee this per-fect rose.

Copyright MCMVIII by G. V. Meckel.
British Copyright Secured.
Also published in G and F